Fulfilling the potential to win

Inspired individuals share their story- what drove them to succeed against the odds and how they realized their goals.

"The launch of three new brands has been the joint effort of everyone, right across the company. From buying the leaf, to the blend, the R&D, the processing, the packaging and finally the marketing, sales and distribution all had to work in tandem, to achieve one goal. It's really true, success is about teamwork, it is about five fingers coming together to form a fist."

- GPI grew by 3 times the Industry rate of growth in 2002 - 03

- Successful launch of Tipper and Prince

" I am really proud to be part of the team that worked on re-launching Prince in the market. We knew that we had a winning brand on our hands. We were so clear about the aim, we knew that we had to find a way to achieve it. That's why I believe that once you have the passion to succeed, nothing can stand in your way. Life has no limitations, except the ones you real a..."

The passion to succeed - it's a value that cuts right across the organization. Every individual is determined to realize his or her potential to be a winner.
